1. What type of intercultural experience does the program provide?
Students coming from more than 70 countries and regions of the world will learn Chinese language and culture together. A certain number of content courses taught in English is also available. For details of the English-taught courses, please refer to the attached files.

2. Who are the best candidates (best majors?) for this program?
There are no restrictions. As long as they are interested in learning Chinese and Chinese culture and having academic experience in China, they are welcome!

3. Who are the instructors?
The instructors for Chinese language and Chinese culture are from the Institute for International Students of Nanjing University. Instructors of content courses come from related departments and schools.

4. What classes are available?
Classes are arranged by the students' level of Chinese (ABCD). Courses are also offered in English; see the Academic Program heading on the SUNY New Paltz’ Nanjing brochure page for details.

5. Are specific classes required?
No.

6. Will our students be in class with Chinese or other international students?
It depends on their Chinese proficiency.

7. How many credits will they take in a semester? 12-18

8. Where will they live and with whom?
They will stay in International Students Dormitory Building with international students.

9. What are the housing facilities like?
We provide bed supplies, air conditioner, electric thermos flask, safety deposit box, telephone, TV set and internet portal.

10. How much does it cost?
Please refer to the Budget Sheet on SUNY New Paltz’ Nanjing brochure page.

11. Where will they eat?
Food is served at International Student Cafeteria in the dorm building.
