HONORS SUMMER PROGRAM IN CHINA

Use your skills to make a difference at a Chinese NGO in Beijing!
Dates: July 9th - August 6th 2016
Location: Beijing, China
Program fee: Contact Center for International Programs

What's included?
- Pre-departure information pack
- Visa assistance
- Airport pickup and transfers
- Accommodation
- Welcome meal
- Lunch at placement NGO
- Orientation to volunteering in China
- Donation to placement NGO
- 2 guest NGO workshop days
- 12 hours of Mandarin lessons
- Cultural activities and tours
- Local SIM card and travel card

A KEY NGO IN CHINA: HUILING

- Huiling’s mission: to improve the quality of life of people with intellectual disabilities and their families
- Founded 20 years ago, Huiling is one of China’s first established NGOs
- Today, there are over 1000 trainees with intellectual and developmental disabilities within the organisation

HUILING NEEDS HONORS STUDENTS

- Use your unique skillset to contribute to the organisation
- Run group skills-training workshops for trainees
- Assist in the day-to-day running of 5 Beijing centers
- Contribute to marketing and social media activities
- Develop and implement a fundraising strategy
- Research how to improve Huiling operations and present your findings to the NGO’s key stakeholders

CULTURAL ACTIVITIES AND TOURS

2 tour days
- Forbidden City, Tiananmen Square
- Great Wall, Olympic Park, Hutongs, Acrobatic show

Cultural activities
- Tai Chi class
- 12 hours of Mandarin classes
- 2 guest NGO workshop days

For more information please contact:
Dr. Patricia Sullivan (sullivap@newpaltz.edu)
or Samantha Skillman (skillmas@newpaltz.edu)